Many people in our community were wondering what they could do to help ensure the safety and security of their family, friends and neighbors. For the members of the Springfield Auxiliary Police, the answer was never clearer...Continue doing what we're trained to do! PROTECT AND SERVE the residents of Springfield.

The Springfield Auxiliary Police is a division of the Springfield Office of Emergency Management. The members of the Auxiliary are required to satisfactorily complete the NJ State Auxiliary Police Training Program. Our training includes a law enforcement curriculum covering such items as; criminal law, traffic control, preservation of evidence, arrest and seizure laws, first aid and CPR, hazardous materials and weapons of mass destruction awareness, personal safety and the use of firearms.

Auxiliary Officers are provided with all uniforms and equipment required to perform police work.

During Hurricane Irene in 2011 and Sandy in 2012, the Springfield Auxiliary Police performed thousands of hours of volunteer service to the community, helping to keep the town, its residents, and its businesses safe and secure. These men and women give their time to make a difference! If you want to make a difference, we invite you to fill out the application and send it in. We are always looking for a few good men and women.
